

Co-Located Pre-K | Middle | High School

NOTE: These views are conceptual and are a "work in progress" as of March 2015; this view may not represent the final design, color scheme or building materials, but are intended to give residents an idea of the design progress as final construction plans are being developed with the Building Committee.

View from front of building into the Middle School Cafeteria

NOTE: These views are conceptual and are a "work in progress" as of March 2015; this view may not represent the final design, color scheme or building materials, but are intended to give residents an idea of the design progress as final construction plans are being developed with the Building Committee.

Acoustical ceiling tiles are stock items which add required acoustical control, improve appearance of ceiling, and provide ease of maintenance

Hallway to Middle School Wing 2nd Floor

Glass wall of School Library

Hallway to High School Wing 2nd Floor

All light fixtures are energy efficient LED fixtures

Hallway to Middle School Wing

Hallway to High School Wing

Exact furniture style has not yet been selected

Co-Located Pre-K | Middle | High School

NOTE: These views are conceptual and are a "work in progress" as of March 2015; this view may not represent the final design, color scheme or building materials, but are intended to give residents an idea of the design progress as final construction plans are being developed with the Building Committee.

View from Middle School front entrance area

NOTE: These views are conceptual and are a "work in progress" as of March 2015; this view may not represent the final design, color scheme or building materials, but are intended to give residents an idea of the design progress as final construction plans are being developed with the Building Committee.

Co-Located Pre-K | Middle | High School

NOTE: These views are conceptual and are a "work in progress" as of March 2015; this view may not represent the final design, color scheme or building materials, but are intended to give residents an idea of the design progress as final construction plans are being developed with the Building Committee.

collaborative research-based learning

View from SE corner of Middle School Cafeteria looking NW

NOTE: These views are conceptual and are a "work in progress" as of March 2015; this view may not represent the final design, color scheme or building materials, but are intended to give residents an idea of the design progress as final construction plans are being developed with the Building Committee.

Display area for student work and creative activities, accessed from adjacent 2nd floor Art Room

Hallway to Middle School (7th & 8th grades on 2nd floor)

Display area

Hallway to Middle School (5th & 6th grades on 1st floor)

Floor is easy to clean and durable

Co-Located Pre-K | Middle | High School

NOTE: These views are conceptual and are a "work in progress" as of March 2015; this view may not represent the final design, color scheme or building materials, but are intended to give residents an idea of the design progress as final construction plans are being developed with the Building Committee.

View from 2nd floor (near Library) looking down to Middle School Cafeteria

NOTE: These views are conceptual and are a "work in progress" as of March 2015; this view may not represent the final design, color scheme or building materials, but are intended to give residents an idea of the design progress as final construction plans are being developed with the Building Committee.

High School front entrance; visitors must go through Office in order to obtain access into School

As a LEED designed building, window assemblies are encouraged to allow "free light" and enhanced environments in newly-constructed school buildings

Middle School visitors cannot access school without first entering Office Area and being allowed past locked doors

Co-Located Pre-K | Middle | High School

NOTE: These views are conceptual and are a "work in progress" as of March 2015; this view may not represent the final design, color scheme or building materials, but are intended to give residents an idea of the design progress as final construction plans are being developed with the Building Committee.

collaborative research-based learning

Looking to High School Cafeteria and High School 2nd floor stair

NOTE: These views are conceptual and are a "work in progress" as of March 2015; this view may not represent the final design, color scheme or building materials, but are intended to give residents an idea of the design progress as final construction plans are being developed with the Building Committee.

Video board near entrance provides updated information to students and visitors

Area reserved for this Green Wave symbol or other artwork to promote school pride

High School Cafeteria seating

Up to High School 2nd Floor

Future update to this design will show a taller wall here to physically divide High School cafeteria from Middle School cafeteria area

NOTE: These views are conceptual and are a "work in progress" as of March 2015; this view may not represent the final design, color scheme or building materials, but are intended to give residents an idea of the design progress as final construction plans are being developed with the Building Committee.

collaborative research-based learning

View from High School Cafeteria looking to South

NOTE: These views are conceptual and are a "work in progress" as of March 2015; this view may not represent the final design, color scheme or building materials, but are intended to give residents an idea of the design progress as final construction plans are being developed with the Building Committee.

collaborative research-based learning

View from High School Cafeteria looking to South

NOTE: These views are conceptual and are a "work in progress" as of March 2015; this view may not represent the final design, color scheme or building materials, but are intended to give residents an idea of the design progress as final construction plans are being developed with the Building Committee.

View from High School Cafeteria looking to West

NOTE: These views are conceptual and are a "work in progress" as of March 2015; this view may not represent the final design, color scheme or building materials, but are intended to give residents an idea of the design progress as final construction plans are being developed with the Building Committee.

Co-Located Pre-K | Middle | High School

NOTE: These views are conceptual and are a "work in progress" as of March 2015; this view may not represent the final design, color scheme or building materials, but are intended to give residents an idea of the design progress as final construction plans are being developed with the Building Committee.

View from High School 2nd floor looking down to AHS Cafeteria

NOTE: These views are conceptual and are a "work in progress" as of March 2015; this view may not represent the final design, color scheme or building materials, but are intended to give residents an idea of the design progress as final construction plans are being developed with the Building Committee.

collaborative research-based learning

View from High School 2nd floor looking down to AHS Cafeteria

Co-Located Pre-K | Middle | High School

NOTE: These views are conceptual and are a "work in progress" as of March 2015; this view may not represent the final design, color scheme or building materials, but are intended to give residents an idea of the design progress as final construction plans are being developed with the Building Committee.

collaborative research-based learning

View of possible layout of new School Library, looking NE

NOTE: These views are conceptual and are a "work in progress" as of March 2015; this view may not represent the final design, color scheme or building materials, but are intended to give residents an idea of the design progress as final construction plans are being developed with the Building Committee.

Circulation Desk and bookshelves are designed so that one employee can see all areas of Library at all times

Note Teaching Area behind glass wall

Ventilation system provides healthy learning environment

This learning area is for supervised class project work, or study groups

collaborative research-based learning

View of possible layout of new School Library, looking NE

Co-Located Pre-K | Middle | High School

NOTE: These views are conceptual and are a "work in progress" as of March 2015; this view may not represent the final design, color scheme or building materials, but are intended to give residents an idea of the design progress as final construction plans are being developed with the Building Committee.

collaborative research-based learning

View from Library Circulation Desk, looking SE

NOTE: These views are conceptual and are a "work in progress" as of March 2015; this view may not represent the final design, color scheme or building materials, but are intended to give residents an idea of the design progress as final construction plans are being developed with the Building Committee.

collaborative research-based learning

View from Library Circulation Desk, looking SE